CHAPTER 126.

AN ACT to legalize the adjournment of the March term of the circuit court of Green county for the year 1881.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The order bearing date March third, 1881, signed H. S. Conger, judge, filed with the clerk of the circuit court of the county of Green, in his office on the said third day of March, 1881, and by him entered in his minutes, whereby it is ordered that the circuit court for Green county be adjourned to Tuesday the twenty-ninth day of March, 1881, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, is hereby in all things declared to be legal and effectual as and for the adjournment of said court to the day last named, the same as though the judge thereof had been in attendance upon said court and had, in person, so ordered said adjournment. Adjournment legalized.

SECTION 2. The several acts and proceedings of said clerk in adjourning said court from day to day, and the aforesaid act and proceeding had and taken by him and the said judge, or either of them, in adjourning said court from the third day of March, 1881, to the twenty-ninth day of March, 1881, are hereby in all things legalized, and declared valid for the adjournment of said court to the day last named. Acts of judge and clerk legalized.

SECTION 3. The circuit court for the county of Green shall be held on the twenty-ninth day of March, 1881, in pursuance of the aforesaid adjournment, and all writs, processes, informations, recognizances, motions and other proceedings pending in said court or Term to be held.
