CHAPTER 300.

AN ACT to authorize the county of Adams to grant certain lands and other property to aid in the construction of railroads.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The county of Adams by its board of supervisors, is hereby authorized to subscribe to the capital stock and to aid in the building and construction of any railroad running into or through said county, and for that purpose may sell, grant and convey to the individual, company or corporation building and constructing, or that shall build and construct such railroad, any or all of the lands and tax certificates owned by said county, upon such terms; conditions and covenants, as shall be agreed to by said supervisors. The authority and powers hereby granted to said board of supervisors may be exercised at any regular meeting or at any special meeting of said board duly called for that purpose. Nothing contained in this section shall be held to affect or abridge any authority conferred by any other law of this state upon said county, to aid in the construction of railroads. Construct.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 30, 1882.

CHAPTER 301.

AN ACT relating to the Wisconsin National Guard, and amendatory of section 635 of revised statutes.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 635 of revised statutes, as amended by section 5 of chapter 185 of laws of 1880, is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Section 635. Each company or battery, not exceeding thirty-five in all, which shall upon such inspection be found to be organized; to possess at least the minimum number of members; to be well uniformed; to be equipped with the necessary arms and accoutrements for its members; to have a suitable armory; to have its arms, accoutrements and stores in good condition, and to have assembled for inspection as provided by law, and the commanders of which shall have made all the musters and returns required, shall, upon the certificate thereof by the adjutant general, approved by the governor, be annually paid out of the state treasury three hundred dollars, on the receipts of its commander, which shall be in full compensation on the part of the state for all pay, when not called into active service, and for rent of armory, care and repair of arms and property, and for all other expenses whatsoever, except the allowance of clothing and subsistence allowance authorized by section 1623, revised statutes, as amended by chapter 185, laws of 1880. Whenever any of the companies constituting the Wisconsin National Guard shall lapse into ill condition, become lax in discipline, negligent in instruction, drill or other duties, or its members lose interest in their organization, the governor may retire such company from such guard, and admit in place of it some other company of later organization, which shall be found to be better entitled to the benefits of this statute, and to have complied with all of the requirements thereof.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 30, 1882.
