

by law, and the commanders of which shall have made all the musters and returns required, shall, upon the certificate thereof by the adjutant general, approved by the governor, be annually paid out of the state treasury three hundred dollars, on the receipts of its commander, which shall be in full compensation on the part of the state for all pay, when not called into active service, and for rent of armory, care and repair of arms and property, and for all other expenses whatsoever, except the allowance of clothing and subsistence allowance authorized by section 1623, revised statutes, as amended by chapter 185, laws of 1880. Whenever any of the companies constituting the Wisconsin National Guard shall lapse into ill condition, become lax in discipline, negligent in instruction, drill or other duties, or its members lose interest in their organization, the governor may retire such company from such guard, and admit in place of it some other company of later organization, which shall be found to be better entitled to the benefits of this statute, and to have complied with all of the requirements thereof.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 30, 1882.

[No. 157, A.]

[Published April, 7, 1882.]

CHAPTER 302.

AN ACT to amend section 331, chapter 20 of the revised statutes, entitled "public printing."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Publication of copy laws.

SECTION 1. Section 331 of the revised statutes is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Section 1. All publishers of weekly newspapers printed in whole or in part, in a printing office at the place where such newspaper purports to be published, or if not so printed, that have been established and regularly published for five years, prior to the date of the approval of this act, having a bona fide circulation to actual subscribers of not less than two hundred copies each week, and which shall have been regularly published for two months prior to the opening of each session of the legislature, who shall publish in their respective newspapers all of the acts of general interest passed at any session of the legislature, which shall be designated by the secretary of state in the official state paper as "copy laws," shall be allowed sixty dollars for such publication, upon filing with the secretary of state satisfactory proof, by affidavit, that such laws have been published as provided in this section, which amount shall be paid out of the general fund of the state treasury.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 30, 1882.

[No. 292, A.]

[Published April 7, 1882.]

CHAPTER 303.

AN ACT to provide for life certificates for teachers in certain cases.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Whenever any teacher of a public school in this state shall have successfully taught in the state for the term of twenty-one years, and shall hold at the expiration of such term of service a county certificate in force of the first or second grade, or a limited state certificate, such teacher may present the certificate thus held and in force to the state superintendent for the purpose of having the same countersigned and made a life certificate as hereinafter provided.

Life certificates.

SECTION 2. Upon presentation to him of any certificate, as provided in section 1 of this act, accompanied by such evidence as he may require as to moral character, and of the completion of the term of service hereinbefore mentioned, the state superintendent may attach his signature thereto, with the statement that the person therein named has furnished him with satisfactory evidence of good moral character, and of having taught successfully for the period of twenty-one years. And thereupon and thereafter such certificate so held and countersigned shall have the force and effect of a life certificate, and entitle the person holding the same to teach in any of the public schools of the state during the life of the person named in such certificate, unless the same shall be annulled for cause by the state superintendent in the manner provided by law for annulling or revoking state certificates.

State superintendent may grant certificates.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 30, 1882.