CHAPTER 189.

AN ACT to amend section 1931 of the revised statutes as amended by section 2 of chapter 48 of the general laws of 1881, entitled, town insurance companies.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1931 of the revised statutes as amended by section 2 of chapter 48 of the general laws of 1881 is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Section 2. No such corporation shall insure any property out of the town or towns in which said corporation is located; provided, that any such corporation at its annual meeting may, by a majority vote of the members present, authorize its directors to insure any farm property or detached dwelling house and contents, in any adjoining town or towns, or in any incorporated city or village which is located in any adjoining towns in which such town insurance corporation is located; provided, such farm property or dwelling or contents shall be detached at least one hundred feet from exposure. No such corporation shall insure any property other than detached dwellings and their contents, farm buildings and their contents, live stock on the premises or running at large, farm products in the stack or bin, and farming implements. But such corporation, at its annual meeting may, by a majority of all the votes entitled to be cast by its members, authorize its directors to insure country stores and their contents, school houses, churches, town and society halls, country hotels and water mills, but such risks shall not exceed twenty-five hundred dollars ($2,500) in any one case.

Relating to town insurance companies.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
Approved March 30, 1883.
