CHAPTER 49.

AN ACT to simplify appeals to the supreme court.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Simplifying appeal to supreme court.

SECTION 1. A party appealing to the supreme court in a civil action, may embrace in one appeal two or more orders, with or without the judgment, provided such orders are appealable and the time allowed for appealing from them has not expired. The appellant in his notice of appeal shall designate with reasonable certainty, the orders and judgment appealed from, or from what part of either of them he appeals. But one undertaking shall be necessary and shall be in the terms prescribed by section 3052 of the revised statutes, except where the sum or effect of an undertaking is required by the provisions of law to be fixed by the court or judge, in which case the undertaking shall be in accordance with said provisions.

SECTION 2. If the appellant shall succeed in his appeal in whole or in part, he shall be allowed his costs, unless the supreme court in its discretion should determine otherwise.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 10, 1883.
