CHAPTER 83.

AN ACT to declare the true intent and meaning of chapter 22 of the general laws of Wisconsin for the year 1867, entitled an act to authorize the county of Marathon to convey certain lands to the state in satisfaction of certain indebtedness, and to confirm the title to the lands in Marathon county, described in the conveyance to the state, heretofore executed under the same by the clerk of the board of supervisors of said county.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Intent and meaning of law.

SECTION 1. That it was the true intent and meaning of section 1, of chapter 22, of the general laws of 1867, that the clerk of the board of supervisors of Marathon county should be and was thereby authorized to convey to the state of Wisconsin, the lands referred to in said section, as then held by said county, by virtue of tax deeds issued upon sales for delinquent taxes, although such tax deeds may not have been in the form prescribed by law; and that such tax deeds and such conveyance by said clerk should be, and hereby are declared to have been and to be as effectual, to pass the title of said lands to the said county of Marathon, and from it to the state of Wisconsin, as though said deeds had been in the form by law prescribed.

SECTION 2. That the lands described in the deed to the state of Wisconsin, executed by said clerk and bearing date the third day of June, A. D. 1867, are the lands, the purchase and conveyance of which, were intended by said section 1 of said chapter 22, and that sections 1, 2, 3 and 4 of said chapter 22, were meant and intended to apply to all the lands described in said deed.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
Approved March 16, 1883.
