

[No. 289, A.]

[Published April 11, 1885.]

CHAPTER 341.

AN ACT to amend section 1164, of the revised statutes of 1878, relating to the collection of unlawful taxes.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1164, of the revised statutes, is hereby amended by adding thereto the following words: "Provided, however, that no action shall be maintained under the provisions of this section, unless it shall be made to appear to the court, that the plaintiff has paid more than his equitable share of such taxes." Respecting the collection of unlawful taxes.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication. Approved April 7, 1885.

[No. 437, A.]

[Published April 13, 1885.]

CHAPTER 342.

AN ACT to prevent the manufacture, sale or transportation of explosives intended for the criminal destruction of life or property.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Any person who makes, manufactures, compounds, buys, sells or gives away, offers to give away, transports or has in his possession, any nitro-glycerine, giant powder, oriental powder, thunderbolt powder, dynamite, ballastile, fulgarite, detonite or any other explosive compound, with intent that any of such explosive compound shall be used at any place within this state, or any state of the United States, or any foreign country, for the injury or destruction of public or private property, or the assassination or murder, injury or destruction of any person or persons, either within this state, or any state of the United States, or Criminal destruction of life or property, penalty for same.

any foreign country, or knowing that such explosive compounds are intended to be used by any other person or persons for any of the purposes named in this section, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison, not less than three nor more than ten years, or by fine of not less than five hundred nor more than one thousand dollars.

Agents, or persons aiding also liable.

SECTION 2. All persons aiding, abetting, or in any manner assisting in the manufacture, compounding, buying, selling, offering for sale or transporting any explosive compounds, either by furnishing material or ingredients, or soliciting or contributing money or other property, with which to purchase said materials or ingredients, or by assisting by skill or labor, or by acting as agents for the principal, or in any manner aiding as accessories before the fact, knowing that any of such explosive compounds are intended to be used by the principals, or any other person or persons, for any of the purposes mentioned in this act, shall be deemed principals, and may be convicted and punished in the same manner and to the same extent as such principal or principals.

Approved April 7, 1885.

[No. 355, A.]

[Published April 13, 1885.]

CHAPTER 343.

AN ACT relating to attachments in courts of record, and amendatory of section 2747, of the revised statutes.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows :

Relating to attachments.

SECTION 1. Section 2747, of the revised statutes, is hereby amended, by adding to said section, at the end thereof, the following: In all cases where there is no defence to the action, or where the plaintiff shall be entitled to judgment by default, and the court shall have found for the defendant, upon the issue raised by the traverse, the court shall, upon request of either party, impanel a jury to assess the defendant's damages by reason of the attachment, and such damages, to-