

the treasury of the state, or county for the use and benefit of such insane person, and shall be applied to his use and support in such hospital, and upon his discharge therefrom, the residue, if any, of such proceeds, shall be paid to him or his guardians; and if such insane person dies in such hospital, then such residue shall be paid to his legal representatives.

Repeal.

SECTION 2. All acts or parts of acts, so far as they conflict with this act, are hereby repealed.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 2, 1887.

[No. 668, A.]

[Published April 22, 1887.]

CHAPTER 294.

AN ACT relating to the foreclosure of chattel mortgages.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Sale on chattle mortgage—redemption.

SECTION 1. No sale of any personal property taken under or by virtue of any chattel mortgage, lease or other instrument, intended as security, except by consent of the mortgagor, his legal representatives and assigns, shall be made before the expiration of five days from the time when the same was actually taken, nor shall any such property during the time aforesaid be removed from the county where the same was situated when so taken; and during such period, such property shall be subject to redemption by payment of the mortgage debt, together with actual and necessary costs, and expenses of taking and keeping the property incurred at the time of making redemption.

Damages for violation.

SECTION 2. In case of any violation of the provisions of this act, the person aggrieved by such violation, may recover of the person violating the same the sum of twenty-five dollars as liquidated damages, in addition to actual damages, in an action brought for that purpose in any court of competent jurisdiction. And in case of the sale of any such property by private sale without notice, or in case the same be sold within the period above limited, the mortgage debt shall be deemed paid and the mortgage securing the same cancelled.

Approved April 2, 1887.

[No. 739, A.]

[Published April 25, 1887.]

CHAPTER 295.

AN ACT relating to the appearance of parties in county courts.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Every person not an infant, insane person or person under other disability interested and appearing in any case, matter, or proceeding before any county court or county judge of this state, shall appear and conduct and prosecute or defend the same, as the case may be, in his own proper person or by some attorney duly admitted to practice in the supreme court of this state or in some circuit court thereof, and not otherwise. Infants, insane persons and other persons under disability shall appear and prosecute or defend by their guardians ad litem, who shall be such attorney, or by a general guardian who shall appear by such attorney; and no person shall appear or take part in any case, matter or proceeding before any such county court or judge, except as above provided.

Appearance of parties in county court must be by attorney or in person.

SECTION 2. Whenever any party shall appear in any case, matter or proceeding, the judge shall require him to appear as herein provided, and shall enter in his minutes, when, how and by whom such party appeared, and shall proceed further in the case, matter or proceeding only upon such appearance being entered as provided in the first section of this act.

Judge to require parties to appear as provided herein.