

[No. 26, S.]

[Published March 7, 1887.]

CHAPTER 30.

AN ACT to authorize Joseph Lenerville to keep and maintain a ferry across the St. Croix river between the town of Sterling, Wisconsin, and Minnesota.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Joseph Lenerville, his heirs, associates and assigns, are hereby granted the exclusive right and privilege to keep and maintain for ten years from the first day of April, 1887, a ferry across the St. Croix river, between lot number two, in section thirty-two, town thirty-six, range twenty, in the town of Sterling, Polk county, Wisconsin, and the Minnesota shore.

Joseph Lenerville authorized to keep and maintain a ferry across St. Croix river in Polk county.

SECTION 2. This ferry shall be subject to such regulations as other ferries are or may be by law, and the proprietor thereof shall be entitled to receive for crossing any vehicle drawn by two horses or mules, or one yoke of oxen, thirty cents; for each additional horse or mule, ten cents; for every single horse and rider, twenty cents; for any vehicle drawn by a single horse or mule, twenty-five cents; for each foot passenger, ten cents; for each single cow, ox, mule, calf, horse or bull, ten cents; for sheep or swine, in droves of ten or more, five cents each; for freight, lumber and merchandise, not with team, per barrel, five cents; per hundred pounds freight, five cents; per hundred feet of lumber, five cents.

Regulations and charges.

SECTION 3. If any person or persons shall, after the establishment of said ferry, set up, keep or maintain any ferry, or shall convey any person, goods or chattels for hire or pay, across the St. Croix river, from or to any place on the Wisconsin shore or side of said river within four miles of the points above named, every person shall, for every such offense forfeit and pay a penalty of ten dollars, to be recovered before any justice of the peace in and for said county of Polk; provided that nothing herein contained shall be deemed or construed to prevent any person who resides on the east bank of said river from the right of making use of his own boats in transporting himself or property across the same at pleasure.

No person to establish ferry within four miles.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
Approved March 4, 1887.

[No. 72, S.]

[Published March 7, 1887.]

CHAPTER 31.

AN ACT relating to transcripts of judgment in justices' courts, and to amend section 3669, of the revised statutes.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Amending
section 3669, R.
S.

SECTION 1. Section 3669, of the revised statutes, is hereby amended by striking from said section the words, "he shall have rendered judgment for more than ten dollars, exclusive of costs," where they appear in the second and third lines thereof, and by substituting, in lieu thereof, the words, "a judgment for more than ten dollars, exclusive of costs, shall have been rendered, either by said justice or by any predecessor in such office whose dockets are in his custody," and, further, by inserting after the word, "me," in the second line of the certificate in the form of transcript, in said section, the following: "(or before E——. F——, late justice of the peace)," and further, by inserting after the word, "my," in such certificate, in said section, the following: "(or his)," and further, by inserting after the word, "docket," in said certificate, the words, "now in my custody," so that said section, when amended, shall read as follows: Section 3669. Every justice, on demand of any person in whose favor a judgment for more than ten dollars, exclusive of costs, shall have been rendered, either by said justice or by any predecessor in such office whose dockets are in his custody, shall give to such per-