CHAPTER 349.

AN ACT to prevent employers from black-listing employes.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

To prevent black-listing employes.

SECTION 1. Any two or more employers who shall agree, combine, and confederate together for the purpose of interfering with or preventing any person or persons seeking employment from obtaining such employment, either by threats, promises or by circulating or causing the circulation of a so-called black-list, or by any means whatsoever, or for the purpose of procuring and causing the discharge of any employe or employes by any means whatsoever, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for a period of not more than one month or by a fine not less than fifty dollars, or by both.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 8, 1887.
