CHAPTER 373.

AN ACT to extend the criminal jurisdiction of the county court of Winnebago county.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Extending criminal jurisdiction of county court of Winnebago county.

SECTION 1. Concurrent jurisdiction, power and authority with the circuit court of Winnebago county, Wisconsin, is hereby conferred and imposed upon the county court of Winnebago county, Wisconsin, of all criminal offenses committed in said county of Winnebago, or of which the circuit court of said county has jurisdiction, other than felonies, or criminal offenses which may be punished by imprisonment in the state prison, and of any person accused thereof, and to hear, try, determine, pronounce judgment and sentence and take and have all necessary proceedings concerning or relating thereto as provided by law. The necessary jurisdiction, power and authority in the premises is hereby conferred and imposed upon the said county court.

Justice of peace or examining magistrate may bail, etc., offender either to circuit or county court.

SECTION 2. In any criminal case or proceedings for any such criminal offense, any justice of the peace, officer or other examining magistrate having jurisdiction, may bail, recognize, bind over or commit for trial the accused, either to the circuit or the county court of said county of Winnebago. When so bailed, recognized or bound over, or committed for trial or lawful proceedings in or to
