CHAPTER 540.

AN ACT to provide for the publication and distribution of a second edition of the roster of Wisconsin volunteers.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Each honorably discharged soldier of the late war who served in a Wisconsin regiment, troop, battery or company, or who served in the regular army or navy and was credited to Wisconsin, who has not already received the same, shall be entitled to receive one copy of the roster of Wisconsin volunteers prepared under the provisions of chapter 244, of the laws of 1885, upon written application to the adjutant-general therefor, stating the name and rank of the applicant and the organization in which he served; provided, that the number of copies of said roster printed during the fiscal year ending Sept. 30, 1888, shall not exceed five thousand.

Who entitled to second edition of roster of Wisconsin volunteers.

SECTION 2. The governor is hereby authorized to order the printing of a special edition of said roster, of such number as he may deem necessary to make the distribution herein provided for, to be printed and bound in such manner and of such material as he may deem suitable; provided, that if the present state printing contract shall not specifically cover such method and material of printing and binding as the governor shall select, then and in that case the governor is hereby authorized to make such stipulation, agreement or contract for the manufacture and delivery of said books as he may deem best; provided, that the said roster shall be bound in cloth, and provided further, that the publication shall not be made during the current year.

Governor to order printing of special edition, if he deem necessary.

SECTION 3. The edition of said roster herein provided for shall be delivered from the office of the adjutant-general to such applicants therefor as shall be found by the records of said office to be entitled thereto; provided, that the cost of delivery, if any, shall be paid by the recipient.

To be delivered from office of adjutant-general.

Appropriation.

SECTION 4. There is hereby appropriated from the state treasury a sum of money sufficient to carry out the provisions of this act.

SECTION 5. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
Approved April 14, 1887.

CHAPTER 541.

AN ACT to amend chapter 17, of the revised statutes, relating to the trust funds and their management.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Amending section 261, R. S.— loans from trust funds.

SECTION 1. Section 261, of chapter 17, of the revised statutes, is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Section 261. Every loan to a school district may be made for such time not exceeding ten years and of such amount which together with all other indebtedness of such district shall not exceed five per centum of the last preceding assessed valuation of the real property in such district and not exceeding in any case ten thousand dollars, as may be agreed upon; the principal shall be payable in equal annual installments from a time fixed by said commissioners with interest at the rate of six per centum annually in advance. No such loan shall be made until proof be filed in the office of said commissioners, of the complete performance on the part of such district of each and every act hereinafter required to precede the same; provided, that the amendment herein contained shall not apply to loans heretofore made.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
Approved April 15, 1887.
