CHAPTER 190.

AN ACT to amend, add to and repeal portions of the charter of the city of Neillsville, and acts amendatory thereof.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows :

SECTION 1. Section 6, of chapter 4, of chapter 271, laws of 1882, is hereby amended by striking out the words, "and provided further, that no sidewalk shall be constructed or rebuilt within said city without such grade first established," and being all that part of said section after the word, "block."

Amendment to ch. 4, of ch. 271, laws of 1882.

SECTION 2. Any person aggrieved by the judgment of the police court imposing a fine, penalty or forfeiture, or term of imprisonment, may appeal from such judgment to the circuit court of Clark county, within the time and in the same manner in which parties may under the general law appeal from the judgment of justices of the peace in criminal actions.

May appeal to the circuit court.

SECTION 3. Section 3, of chapter 5, of chapter 271, of the laws of 1882, is hereby amended so as to read as follows: The common council of said city shall have power to incur indebtedness and authorize the issue of negotiable corporate bonds therefor in a sum not exceeding two thousand dollars in any one year for any of the purposes mentioned in section 9+2, of the revised statutes; but this section shall not be construed to limit or abridge the powers of said council or said city to incur an indebtedness, or issue bonds exceeding said sum in the manner provided by chapter 41, of the revised statutes.

Amendment to ch. 5, of ch. 271, laws of 1882.

Common council authorized to issue bonds.

SECTION 4. Section 6, of chapter 5, of chapter 271, laws of 1882, is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Section 6. The common council may provide for the payment of persons employed by the city, and for the furnishing of fuel to the city on weekly or monthly pay rolls, and shall prescribe the form of the same and day to be paid, and said pay rolls shall be certified to by the

ch. 5, of ch. 271, laws of 1832.

Maintenance of bridges.

SECTION 6. Section 14, of chapter 5, of chapter 271, laws of 1832, is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Section 14. The common council shall have the care and supervision of all bridges across Black river to the city limits, and the city shall not be liable to any person for any injury or damage any person may sustain on any part of such bridges not within the limits of said city; provided, however, that the common council of the city of Neillsville, and the supervisors of the town of Pine Valley, may determine in a joint order that any or all of such bridges shall be maintained jointly, and the proportion of the expenses to be paid by each said city and town, or that a certain specified part of such bridges across Black river shall be made and kept in repair by each, and what share of the damages, if any, shall be paid by each, and each shall have all the rights and be subject to all the liabilities in relation to the part of such bridges to be made or repaired by such city or town as if it were wholly located in such city or town; provided, further, that the common council of the city of Neillsville may by ordinance, protect and forbid any injury, damage, defacing, marring, overloading, or riding or driving faster than a walk on, or across any bridge within the city, or across Black river adjacent to said city with the same effect as though the whole of such bridges across Black river were within the corporate limits of said city, and the jurisdiction of the council for such purposes, and the jurisdiction of the police court or justice for the purpose of enforcing such ordinances is hereby extended so as to cover the entire length of such bridges, including the approaches thereto; and it is further provided that this amendment shall not in any manner affect any claims or demands the city of Neillsville may have against the town of Pine Valley for moneys, materials or labor heretofore expended, laid out, contracted, or liable for, furnished, or done, on the bridges across Black river, west of the city.

SECTION 7. Sections 21 and 22, of chapter 5, of chapter 271, laws of 1882, are hereby repealed, and the words, "also the amount of poll tax collected by him," are hereby stricken out of section 24, of chapter 5, laws of 1882, as amended by chapter 312, laws of 1883. Repealed.

SECTION 8. Section 15, of chapter 4, of chapter 360, laws of 1882, as amended by section 10, of chapter 360, laws of 1885, is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Section 15. No poll tax shall be assessed, levied or collected within said city. No poll tax shall be levied.

SECTION 9. Section 2, of chapter 366, laws of 1887, is hereby repealed.

SECTION 10. The common council may license the keeping of dogs and charge such fee as they may deem proper, which, however, shall not be less than one dollar for each dog so licensed, and provide for a badge or token, to be carried by each licensed dog. Licensing of dogs.

SECTION 11. All acts and parts of acts conflicting with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed. Repealed.

SECTION 12. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
Approved March 28, 1889.
