CHAPTER 454.

AN ACT to amend section 3332, chapter 143, of the revised statutes, relating to the filing and enforcement of liens on logs and timber.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Amending
sec. 3332, R. S.

Lien on logs,
action to enforce, where brought.

When waived.

SECTION 1. Section 3332, of the revised statutes, is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Section 3332. All actions to enforce such liens may be brought in the circuit court of the proper county, when the amount stated in the affidavit for the attachment, over and above all legal set-offs, exceeds one hundred dollars, or before any justice of the peace having jurisdiction of the amount claimed and of the parties. Actions may be commenced to enforce such liens, if the same be due, immediately after the filing of such petition or statement, and such lien claim shall cease to be a lien on the property named in such petition or statement, unless action be commenced within four months after the filing of such petition or statement. If the claim is not due at the time of such filing, the time when the same will become due may be set forth in the petition or statement, and in such case the lien claim shall not cease to be a lien on the property named in the petition, until thirty days after such claim shall have become due; provided, that such lien shall continue in any event for four months after the filing of such petition. In all such actions the person, company or corporation liable for the payment of such debt or claim, shall be made the party defendant. Any person claiming to be the owner of any such logs or timber may be made a party defendant on application to the court having jurisdiction of the action, at any time before final judgment therein. No person purchasing such logs or timber or otherwise acquiring any interest therein, before the time for filing such petition or statement has expired, shall be considered a bona fide purchaser as against the rights of any such lien claimant; provided, however, that any time check that shall become the property of another by purchase or otherwise shall be and remain a lien and the person owning the same shall have the same right of a lien and the same rights and powers to enforce the same as the person or persons performing the work or labor for which said time check was given; provided, further, that in order to affect the rights of innocent parties, purchasing such logs or timber in good faith, such lien claimant shall have filed with the clerk of the circuit court a notice of his intention to claim a lien, as provided by law.

Party defendant.

Claims of purchasers or persons acquiring interest before time for filing petition not to affect lien claimant.

Time checks—lien of.

Claimant to file notice of claim.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
 Approved April 16, 1889.
