CHAPTER 84.

AN ACT to amend chapter 42, of the revised statutes, entitled, "Of resignations, vacancies and removals from office."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Amending ch.
42 R. S. 976a,
special election
to fill vacancy
in any elective
village, ward or city office.

SECTION 1. Chapter 42, of the revised statutes of the state of Wisconsin, is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof, the following section: Section 976a. Whenever a vacancy shall have existed for the term of ten days in any elective village, ward or city office, without being filled as provided by law, such vacancy may be filled by election in such town, village, ward or city. Such special election shall be called, and not less than six days' notice thereof given by the town, village or city clerk, upon the written request of ten freeholders of such town, village, ward or city, and shall be held within ten days after such request is made. In case of a vacancy in the office of clerk, or of his inability or refusal to call such special election, the same may be called and noticed by any other elective town, village, ward or city officer.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
Approved March 13, 1889.
