[No. 56, S.]

JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 18.

Providing for the application of the proceeds of judgments against past state treasurers to the funds in the state treasury.

WHEREAS, Judgments have been rendered in certain cases, and it is expected that other judgments will be rendered in the near future, in actions now pending in favor of the state of Wisconsin and against certain past state treasurers for the amount of the interest moneys arising from the deposit of the public funds and moneys of the state in banks, and otherwise, and collected by said past state treasurers, together with interest thereon; and,

WHEREAS, The judgments entered and to be entered in such actions cannot make provision for the application or distribution of the moneys so recovered, to the different trust funds, and other funds, in the state treasury, at the time such interest moneys accrued, but the proceeds of such judgments, as collected, must be paid into the treasury, to be credited and applied according to law; and,

WHEREAS. It may not clearly and accurately appear from the books of account in the office of the state treasurer, and from the official reports and statements made by such past state treasurers, the precise amount that should now be credited and applied to each such fund in the state treasury; now, therefore be it

Resolved by the senate, the assembly concurring: That the commissioners of public lands, with the approval of the governor, are hereby authorized to make such application and distribution, as to them shall seem just and proper, of the interest moneys already collected, or which may hereafter be collected, as the proceeds of any judgment in favor of the state against any past state treasurer, or his sureties, to the trust funds, and to the other funds now in the state treasury; and that the written order of such commissioners of the public lands, approved by the governor, directing the application and distribution of the proceeds of any such judgment to the different funds now in the state treasury, shall be conclusive in the matter, and shall be a final determination of the rights of all parties claiming in a representative capacity, or otherwise, the proceeds of said judgments, or any share or proportion of said interest moneys.
