CHAPTER 100.

AN ACT to amend sections 924 and 925, of the revised statutes of the state of Wisconsin of 1878, relating to the dissolution of village corporations.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Dissolution of village corporations, how effected.

SECTION 1. Section 1, of section 924, of the revised statutes of 1878, is hereby amended to read as follows: Section 924. Whenever an application in writing signed by one-third as many electors of any village incorporated by special act or under the general statutes of this state, as voted for village officers at the next preceding election therefor shall be presented to the village board, praying for dissolution of the village corporation, such board shall submit to the electors of such village, at a general election or special election called by them for that purpose, the question whether or not such village corporation shall be dissolved. The form of the ballot shall be "for dissolution" or "against dissolution;" such ballots shall be deposited in a separate box and such election shall be conducted, the votes thereat canvassed, and statement thereof made, filed and recorded as in other cases.

Duties of the village board of trustees defined.

SECTION 2. Section 925, of the revised statutes of 1878, is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Section 925. If two-thirds of the ballots cast at such election on such proposition shall be for dissolution, such village shall, at the expiration of six months from the date of such election, cease to be an incorporated village. Within six months the village board shall dispose of the village property and settle, audit and allow all just claims against the village. It shall settle with the village treasurer and other officers of the village, and shall cause assets of the village to be used in paying the debts thereof. If anything remain after paying the village debts, it may designate the manner in which the same shall be used. If it has not sufficient funds to pay the debts of the village, it may levy a tax to cover such deficiency, which shall be collected as other taxes, and shall be paid out by the town treasurer in payment of the outstanding village orders or bonds; and in case of such dissolution of the village, the territory embraced therein shall revert to and become a part of the town from which it was taken, or in which it is then located.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
