CHAPTER 193.

AN ACT to apportion the indebtedness to become due the state of Wisconsin, from the board of school directors of the town of Pelican, in Oneida county.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Whereas, The board of school directors of the town of Pelican, has heretofore borrowed certain sums of money from the trust funds of the state, all of which loan has not been paid; and

Town of Pelican borrowed money from the state.

Whereas, The city of Rhinelander became incorporated during the year 1894, and was created out of territory, which prior to its incorporation, formed a part of the said town of Pelican; and

City of Rhinelander incorporated afterwards.

Whereas, The board of school directors of the town of Pelican and the city of Rhinelander have made a settlement and adjustment of matters arising out of the incorporation of said city, and it was mutually agreed by and between said municipal bodies, that the said city of Rhinelander should pay sixty-five and one-half per centum of the amount of the said indebtedness due or to become due the state of Wisconsin, and the board of school directors of the town of Pelican should pay thirty-four and one-half per centum of said indebtedness.

City and town have made a settlement.

SECTION 1. It shall be the duty of the secretary of state to certify hereafter to the county clerk of Oneida county the amount of any instalment of principal or interest hereafter to become due on account of moneys heretofore borrowed by the board of school directors of the town of Pelican from the trust funds of the state of Wisconsin in the following manner: Sixty-five and one-half per centum thereof shall be certified as an indebtedness of the city of Rhinelander, and shall be collected by the levy of a tax on the taxable property of said city in the same manner as if the loan had been made to said city. The remaining thirty-four and one-half per centum shall be certified as an indebtedness of the town of Pelican, and shall be paid by the levy of a tax on the taxable property of said town of Pelican.

How secretary of state shall certify indebtedness hereafter.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 11, 1895.

CHAPTER 194.

AN ACT to amend the charter of the Wisconsin River Improvement Company.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Charter amended.

SECTION 1. The Wisconsin River Improvement Company, incorporated by an act approved February 19, 1853, is hereby authorized to improve the navigation of the Wisconsin river in the manner provided for in said act, or in such other manner as it may deem expedient or advisable from Stevens Point, Portage county, to the head waters of the Wisconsin river, including such portion of Lake Vieaux Desert as lies within the boundaries of the state of Wisconsin; provided, however, that the legislature of the state of Wisconsin shall at any time have the right and the same is hereby reserved to it, to alter, modify or repeal any or all provisions of this act without any liability attachment to said state by reason of any such modification, alteration or repeal.
