CHAPTER 181.

AN ACT to change the boundaries of the seventh and ninth judicial circuits, and providing for special terms in the seventh circuit.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Adams county detached from the ninth and attached to the seventh judicial circuit.

SECTION 1. The county of Adams is hereby detached from the ninth judicial circuit and is attached to and constituted a part of the seventh judicial circuit.

Terms of court.

SECTION 2. The terms of the circuit court for Adams county shall be held on the second Tuesday in June and the third Tuesday in December.

Each general term to be a special term.

SECTION 3. Every general term in each of the counties of the seventh judicial circuit, as constituted by this act, shall be a special term for the whole circuit.

Repealing clause.

SECTION 4. All acts or parts of acts contravening the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

SECTION 5. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 2, 1897.
