CHAPTER 237.

AN ACT to amend section 458c of the Wisconsin statutes of 1898, relating to common schools and teachers thereof.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Diplomas of universities and normal schools, in this and other states.

SECTION 1. Section 458c of the Wisconsin statutes of 1898 is hereby amended by striking out the words "of two years' successful teaching in a public school after the date of said diploma" where the same occur in the ninth and tenth lines of said section, and inserting in lieu thereof the words, "if a holder of a diploma granted by any such college or university located within this state of one year's successful teaching in a public school after the date of said diploma; if a holder of a diploma granted by any such college, university or normal school not located within the state, the applicant shall furnish therewith like testimonials of good moral character, and of two years' successful teaching in a public school after the date of said diploma," so that said section when so amended shall read as follows: section 458c. The holder of a diploma granted by any incorporated college or university whose regular collegiate courses are fully and fairly equivalent to corresponding courses of the university of Wisconsin, or the holder of a diploma granted by a state normal school whose courses of study are fully and fairly equivalent to the courses of study in the Wisconsin normal schools, may present such diploma, together with evidence of the required standing of the college, university or normal school granting the same, to the board of examiners. The applicant shall furnish therewith testimonials of good moral character and, if a holder of a diploma granted by any such college or university located within this state, of one year's successful teaching in a public school after the date of said diploma; if a holder of a diploma granted by any such college, university or normal school not located within the state, the applicant shall furnish therewith like testimonials of good moral character, and of two years' successful teaching in a public school after the date of said diploma. The holder of any such diploma recommended favorably by the board shall be entitled to receive an unlimited state certificate. The holder of a diploma granted upon the completion of a course of study accredited as herein provided, upon which a state certificate has not been issued, upon the recommendation of the board of examiners made in pursuance of such examination as to learning, moral character and ability to teach as said board may require, may be given a special license by the state superintendent to teach for two years in a public school.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 21, 1899.
