CHAPTER 82.

AN ACT to amend section 1492f of the Wisconsin statutes of 1898, relating to the practice of veterinary medicine and surgery.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1492f of the Wisconsin statutes of 1898 is hereby amended by adding Persons practicing veterinary medicine and surgery to register with register of deeds. Qualifications necessary, and punishment for failure to comply.

thereto the following words: any person who shall violate the provisions of this section shall be punished by a fine of not less than ten dollars nor more than twenty-five dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail not less than thirty nor more than ninety days or both. So that said section when so amended shall read as follows: Practitioners, who may be; record of. Section 1492f. No person shall practice veterinary medicine and surgery or any branch thereof in this state for compensation or shall directly or indirectly ask or receive for his services as a practitioner thereof any fee or reward, nor shall be competent to testify as an expert witness in any court in matters pertaining to the diseases of animals unless he be registered as a veterinary physician and surgeon by the register of deeds of the county in which he resides. No person shall be so registered unless he is a graduate of a legally incorporated school or college of veterinary medicine and surgery, or shall hold a certificate of qualification as a veterinary physician and surgeon from a legally incorporated veterinary society, or shall have practiced veterinary medicine and surgery in this state for a period of not less than five years continuously before the twenty-eighth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven. The register of deeds of each county shall provide a book to be known as the veterinary medical registry in which he shall record the name of the registrant, of the institution which granted his diploma or of the society which granted his certificate; or if the applicant for registration does not hold either, then he may be registered upon filing his affidavit stating that he has practiced veterinary medicine and surgery in this state for five years continuously prior to the date above given. Any person so registered and who shall pay to the register of deeds one dollar shall be entitled to continue the practice of veterinary medicine and surgery. Nothing in this section contained shall be construed to prohibit the rendition of
