CHAPTER 202.

AN ACT relating to town insurance companies and amendatory of section 1927 of the statutes of 1898.

The people of the state of Wisconsin represented in senate and assembly do enact as follows:

Name, what to contain; change of; filing of blanks used with insurance commissioner. SECTION 1. Section 1927 of the statutes of 1898 is hereby amended by striking out the second sentence of the third paragraph thereof “the name of every such corporation,” and inserting in lieu thereof the following: the words “Town Insurance Company” shall form part of the name of every such corporation hereafter organized, and no corporation not organized under this section shall be entitled to use a name embodying said words, except that corporations now existing may continue their present names. Corporations organized under this section may change their name to conform hereto. The subsequent division of the territory of the towns mentioned in the articles into new towns shall not impair any power, duty or liability of such corporation. A copy of the articles, by-laws, policy, and of each blank used by any such company shall be furnished to and filed and preserved by the commissioner of insurance.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
