CHAPTER 400.

AN ACT to amend section 158, chapter 11, of the statutes of 1898, defining the fiscal year of the state.

The people of the state of Wisconsin represented in senate and assembly do enact as follows:

Fiscal year defined; duty of departments. SECTION 1. Section 158, chapter 11, of the statutes of 1898 is hereby amended by striking out the word "October" where the same occurs in the second line of said section, and by inserting in lieu thereof the word "July;" and said section is hereby further amended by striking out the word "September" where the same occurs in the second and third lines of said section, and by inserting in lieu thereof the word "June;" and said section is further amended by striking out the word "September" where the same occurs in the eighth line of said section, and by inserting in lieu thereof the word "June," and by adding to said section the following words: "and the fiscal year of all departments, boards and bodies connected with the state government in any manner shall commence and close on the same dates as the fiscal year of the state;" so that said section, when amended, shall read as follows: Section 158. The fiscal year of the state shall commence on the first day of July in each year and close on the thirtieth day of June next succeeding. All books and accounts of the secretary of state and of the state treasurer shall be kept, and all the duties of those officers shall be performed with reference to the beginning and ending of the fiscal year. All officers and persons required to render annual accounts to the secretary of state and treasurer shall close those accounts on the thirtieth day of June in each year, and shall render such accounts as soon thereafter as may be practicable and the fiscal year of all departments, boards and bodies connected with the state government in any manner shall commence and close on the same dates as the fiscal year as the state."

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after January 1st 1902.
