CHAPTER 32.

AN ACT amendatory of section 2331 of the statutes of 1898, relating to persons authorized to solemnize marriages.

The people of the state of Wisconsin represented in senate and assembly do enact as follows:

Who may solemnize marriage. SECTION 1. Section 2331 of the statutes of 1898 is hereby amended by inserting after the words "justice of the peace," where they occur in the second line of said section, the words "police justice, municipal judge," so that said section when so amended shall read as follows: Section 2331. Marriages may be solemnized by any justice of the peace, police justice, municipal judge or court commissioner in the county in which he is elected or appointed, and throughout the state by any judge of a court of record, and by any ordained minister or priest in regular communion with any religious society and who continues to be such minister or priest.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 27, 1903.
