CHAPTER 329.

AN ACT to amend chapter 188 of the laws of 1901, relating to encouraging attendance upon free high schools by residents of towns and villages having no free high schools, and prescribing the conditions entitling persons to attend.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

When non-residents may be admitted to free high schools.

SECTION 1. Chapter 188 of the laws of 1901 is hereby amended, so that said chapter when so amended shall read as follows: Section 1. The free high school board of any free high school district organized under the laws of this state, shall admit to the high school under its control, whenever the facilities for seating and instruction will warrant, any person of school age prepared to enter such school, who may reside in any town or incorporated village, but not within any free high school district, and who shall have completed the course of study in the school district in which he resides, or one equivalent thereto. Persons so admitted shall be entitled to the same privileges and be subject to the same rules and regulations as pupils of the school who are residents of the free high school district.

Tuition fee, statement of. SECTION 2. Whenever persons, not residing in any free high school district and having completed the course of study in the school district in which he
