CHAPTER 74.

AN ACT requiring interurban railroad companies to provide certain accommodations for the comfort and convenience of their passengers.

The people of the state of Wisconsin represented in senate and assembly do enact as follows:

Drinking tank; toilet room; penalty; duty of district attorney.

SECTION 1. Every person, partnership or corporation owning or operating an interurban car line in this state, the cars upon which are propelled by steam, cable, electricity or horsepower, shall provide each closed car with a suitable drinking tank, and a toilet room composed of wood, iron or other material sufficient for the comfort and convenience of passengers upon such cars, and such drinking tank and toilet room shall be at all times maintained in a sanitary condition by such person, partnership or corporation, owning or operating such interurban railway, provided, that such toilet room may be closed or locked while such car is within the limits of a corporate city. Any such person, partnership or corporation owning or operating such interurban railway, or the managing or superintending officer or agent thereof, who shall fail to comply with the provisions of this section, shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not less than fifty ($50) dollars nor more than one hundred ($100) dollars. Each day that any such person, partnership or corporation shall cause or permit any of their employes to operate such car or cars in violation of the provisions of this section, or cause or permit cars to be used or pro-
