CHAPTER 116.

AN ACT to regulate the public service of stallions in this state.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Enrollment of stallion; certificate of enrollment. SECTION 1. Every person, firm or company standing or traveling any stallion for profit or gain in this state shall cause the name, description and pedigree of such stallion to be enrolled by the Department of Horse Breeding of the College of Agriculture, University of Wisconsin, and procure a certificate of such enrollment, from said department, which shall thereupon be presented to and recorded by the register of deeds of the county in which said stallion is used for public service.

Oath of owner or certificate of veterinarian and pedigree to be filed. SECTION 2. In order to obtain the license certificate herein provided for, the owner of each stallion shall make oath before a notary public that such stallion is, to the best of his knowledge, free from hereditary, contagious or transmissible unsoundness or disease, or, in lieu thereof, may file a certificate of soundness, signed by a duly qualified veterinarian, who shall be a regular graduate of a recognized veterinary college, and shall forward this affidavit or veterinarian's certificate, together with the stud book certificate of registry of the pedigree of the said stallion and other necessary papers relating to his breeding and ownership to the Department of Horse Breeding of the College of Agriculture.

Standard of merit. SECTION 3. The officers of the Department of Horse Breeding of the said College of Agriculture, whose duty it shall be to examine and pass upon the merits of each pedigree submitted, shall use as their standard for action the stud books and signatures of the duly authorized presidents and secretaries respectively of the various horse pedigree registry associations, societies or companies recognized by the Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., and shall accept as pure-bred, and entitled to a license certificate as such, each stallion for which a pedigree registry certificate is furnished bearing the signature of the president and secretary of a government recognized and approved stud book.

Owner to post copies of license certificate. SECTION 4. The owner of any stallion standing for public service in this state, shall post and keep affixed during the entire breeding season, copies of the license certificate of such stallion, issued under the provisions of the next succeeding section, in a conspicuous place both within and upon the outside of the main door leading into every stable or building where the said stallion stands for public service.

Forms of license certificate. SECTION 5. The license certificate issued for a stallion whose sire and dam are of pure breeding and the pedigree of which is registered in a stud book recognized by the Government Department of Agriculture, shall be in the following form:
