CHAPTER 179.

AN ACT to provide that towns, villages and cities in this state may accept donations and legacies for the care of cemeteries, and regulating the distribution of the income derived therefrom.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Town, village or city may act as trustee. SECTION 1. Any town, village or city within this state may vote to receive and hold in trust money, the income of which is to be used for the care and the improvement of cemeteries and of private lots, and their appurtenances located within such cemeteries.

Vote upon question. SECTION 2. Such vote shall be taken in towns by the electors thereof, at an annual town meeting, and in villages and cities by an ordinance, duly adopted by their governing bodies at some regular meeting thereof, and to be approved by the president of the village or mayor of the city, as the case may be.

Treasurer to keep account of funds received; interest. SECTION 3. Such money shall, unless otherwise directed by the donor, be paid into the treasury of the town, city or village and the treasurer of the municipality concerned shall give a receipt therefor, which shall be recorded in some appropriate book to be kept for that purpose. In such book shall be stated the amount received from each donor, and the specific purpose to which the use thereof is appropriated. Money so received, unless otherwise directed by the donor, shall be paid into the general fund of the town, city or village and the town, city or village shall thereafter be perpetually liable for four per cent thereon annually, or if the municipality concerned can at any time borrow the same amount of money for a rate of interest less than four per cent, then for such less rate of interest annually to be expended for the purpose and in the manner designated by the donor, by and under the direction of the town, city or village authorities, and through such agencies as they may from time to time select.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
