CHAPTER 227.

AN ACT to amend section 3187a of the statutes of 1898, as amended by chapter 121 of the laws of 1901, relating to real estate.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Filing notice in proceedings to take land for highways, etc.

SECTION 1. Section 3187a of the statutes of 1898, as amended by chapter 121 of the laws of 1901, is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Section 3187a. Every person who makes an application to any court, county board, common council, or village board for laying out, widening, vacating or extending any street, alley, water channel, park, highway or other public place shall, at or prior to the time of filing the same with the proper officer, file a notice of the pendency of such application, containing his name and a brief statement of the object thereof and a map and description of the land to be affected thereby in the office of the register of deeds of each county in which any such land is situated. Neglect to comply with these provisions shall render all proceedings based upon such application void, but no order vacating, or proceedings for the vacation of, any street, alley, water channel, park, highway or other public place, heretofore made or had, shall be void solely by reason of the failure to file such notice of the pendency of such application, map and description. No final order, judgment or decree or final resolution or order taking or affecting such land, based upon any application therefor, shall have any effect or be notice to any subsequent purchaser or incumbrancer unless
