

[No. 28, A.]

JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 4.

On the death of Frank A. Cady.

WHEREAS, Frank A. Cady, recently a member of this body, from Wood county, has obeyed the summons that sooner or later comes to every one,

Resolved, That we hereby express our deep regret at the very serious loss, sustained by the many interests in which Mr. Cady took so prominent a part. As a citizen, his voice was always in favor of wise and intelligent advancement, as a member of the school board of his home city, no one more readily recognized or more heartily approved of all efforts tending to greater efficiency of the means for education; as a member of the city council of Marshfield, he never failed to use his influence and ability to the credit of the city and to the advantage of every legitimate enterprise. As a member of this body, his attitude towards legislative measures was ever in accord with his convictions, not with self-interest. As a lawyer, his name, wherever known, was a synonym for untiring effort, indomitable perseverance and wonderful painstaking industry. Whatever duty came to him or whatever task he assumed, his fullest energy and his whole time were given to the work.

The community of which Mr. Cady was a valuable factor, the assembly of which he was a most efficient member, the profession, which he graced with his legal attainments, all feel the great loss, sustained in the untimely death of this man. With his family, his friends, his associates, we sincerely sympathize and hereby offer our condolence.

Resolved further, That copies of these resolutions be enrolled and signed by the speaker and chief clerk of the assembly and by the president and chief clerk of the senate, and presented to the family of the late Frank A. Cady, and to the press of Wood county, Wisconsin.
