CHAPTER 218.

AN ACT to establish a fourth municipal court in and for the county of Dunn.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Designation and seal. SECTION 1. A fourth municipal court in and for the county of Dunn is established, under the name of the fourth municipal court of Dunn county, with the powers and jurisdiction hereinafter specified and provided. Said court shall have a seal with suitable device to be procured under the direction of the judge of said court at the expense of Dunn county. All papers, depositions, certificates, acknowledgments, communications and other documents, accepted and signed by said judge, when sealed with the seal of said court shall be evidence in all courts and places in this state and shall have the same effect as the seal of all courts of record.

Jurisdiction, civil and criminal. SECTION 2. 1. Said fourth municipal court and the judge thereof shall take cognizance of and shall have jurisdiction to hear, try and determine all actions and proceedings at law, wherein the amount of the debt, damages and demand and penalty of forfeiture shall not exceed the amount of five hundred dollars; all actions to recover the possession of personal property, with damages, for the unlawful taking or detention thereof, wherein the value of the property claimed shall not exceed the sum of five hundred dollars; all actions arising under chapter 145 of the statutes of 1898, when the amount claimed shall not exceed five hundred dollars; all charges for criminal offenses, including bastardy, arising within said county which are not punishable by commitment to state prison, and all offenses arising under the charter and ordinances of all duly incorporated cities and villages within said county; said judge shall have power and jurisdiction throughout the county to cause to be brought before him all persons who may be charged with having committed any criminal offense and to issue process therefor and to commit them to jail or require bail, as the case may require; he shall have the jurisdiction, authority, powers and rights given by law to justices of the peace.

Judgment of confession; defendant's statements. 2. A judgment of confession may be entered by the judge of said court, in any sum not exceeding one thousand dollars; without action, whether for money due or to become due, or to secure any person against a contingent liability on behalf of the defendant, or both, if a verified statement be made by the defendant to the following effect:

First. It must state the amount for which judgment may be entered and authorize the entry of judgment therefor by the judge of said court.

Second. If it be for money due or to become due, it shall state concisely the fact or facts out of which the indebtedness arose and must show that the amount confessed is justly due or to become due.

Third. If it be for the purpose of securing the plaintiff against a contingent liability, it must state concisely all facts constituting a contingent liability and must show that the amount confessed does not exceed the same.

Jurisdiction limited. 3. But nothing herein contained shall be construed to give said municipal judge cognizance of or jurisdiction over any action mentioned in subdivisions 1, 2 and 3 of section 3573 of the statutes of 1898.

Justice court procedure to apply. 4. The general provisions of laws relative to civil and criminal actions by justices of the peace, shall apply to the said court as far as applicable, and all appeals, civil and criminal, from said court, may be taken in the same manner and with like effect as is provided by law for appeals from judgments of justices of the peace.

Judge; election, term, vacancies. SECTION 3. On the first Tuesday in April, 1908, and every four years thereafter, there shall be elected in the county of Dunn in the same manner as county judges are elected, a judge of said fourth municipal court, who shall hold his office for a term of four years from the first Monday of May next following his election, and until his successor is elected and qualified. If a vacancy shall occur in the office of said municipal judge, such vacancy shall be filled by appointment by the governor of this state, and the person so appointed shall continue in office for the residue of the term for which his predecessor was elected or appointed. Upon the passage and publication of this act, the office of the judge of said court shall be deemed vacant and shall be filled by appointment by the governor within thirty days thereafter, and the person thus appointed shall hold office until the first Monday in May, A. D. 1908, or until his successor is elected and qualified.

Judges' oath and bond. SECTION 4. The judge of said municipal court shall hold no other county office during the term for which he was elected or appointed. The said judge shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, take and subscribe the constitutional oath of office and file the same with the clerk of the circuit court of Dunn county, and execute to the said county a bond in the sum of one thousand dollars, with two or more sureties to be approved by the county treasurer of said county, conditioned upon the faithful performance of the duties of said office and the faithful accounting of all moneys, properties and effects which may come into his hands by authority of the said office, and shall record and file the same as provided by section 702 of the statutes of 1898.

Judge's office room; appointees in case of absence or disability. SECTION 5. The judge of said fourth municipal court shall hold his office alternately in the village of Boyceville and in the village of Downing in said Dunn county, in a suitable room, furnished, cared for and provided for such purpose by said county. In case of sickness, absence or temporary disability, the said municipal judge may, by order in writing, to be filed in said court, appoint the county judge, a court commissioner, or any justice of the peace in said county, to discharge the duties of such municipal judge during such sickness, absence or disability, who shall have the powers of such judge when administering said office and shall be entitled to receive as compensation the per diem provided as hereinafter stated.

Judge a court commissioner. SECTION 6. The judge of the fourth municipal court of Dunn county shall be ex-officio court commissioner and shall have and may exercise all the powers conferred upon commissioners by section 2434 of the statutes of 1898 of this state, and every authority granted to and limitations of the powers of a court commissioner by the laws of this state shall be construed to extend to said municipal judge acting in such capacity, except when otherwise expressly provided, and the official designation of said court when so acting shall be "judge of the fourth municipal court of Dunn county."

Salary and fees of judge; annual accounting. SECTION 7. The municipal judge shall have and receive the same fees in all civil actions as are now allowed by law to justices of the peace, and is empowered to tax the same. For his services in conducting criminal trials and examinations, he shall receive a salary at the rate of two hundred dollars per annum, payable monthly out of the county treasury of Dunn county, in the same manner as salaries of other county officers are paid, to and until the first regular meeting of the county board of supervisors of Dunn county, next after the passage and approval of this act, and thereafter said county board shall fix the amount of his salary as such judge, which shall be paid out of the county treasury of Dunn county, as aforesaid, in the same manner as the salaries of other county officers are paid, and the said salary to be in full for all services in conducting criminal trials and examinations, but in all criminal actions and proceedings he shall tax the same fees, as justices of the peace are now allowed to tax and shall pay into the county treasury all the fines, costs and fees received by him in any criminal matter or proceeding. On the first day of November of each year he shall file with the county clerk a statement under oath of the fees by him paid to the county treasury.

If judge an interested party; substitution of others.

SECTION 8. No action, examination or other proceedings shall be removed from said court, except as hereinafter provided; if prior to joining issue in any case and prior to any examination or other proceeding, it shall appear by affidavit that the municipal judge is a material witness or is in any way related to either of the parties, or from prejudice the municipal judge will not decide impartially in the matter, the said municipal judge shall notify the county judge or some justice of the peace or court commissioner in said county not disqualified to hear said examination, trial, or other proceeding, whereupon it shall be the duty of the said justice or county judge or court commissioner to forthwith appear at the court room of the said municipal court, and discharge the duties of the judge of said court on the trial of said case, of the hearing of said examination or other proceeding, as the case may be, with like effect, as the said municipal judge would if not disqualified to act. In matters or proceedings of which justices of the peace have not jurisdiction, the county judge or court commissioner shall be called to preside over said court. The magistrate so acting in any criminal proceeding shall receive as full compensation therefor the sum of two dollars for each half day he shall actually or necessarily spend in said examination or other proceeding and shall be paid out of the county treasury upon presentation of a bill therefor to the county board and allowance thereof, and in case of civil actions he shall be entitled to the fees provided for in the preceding section.

Court officers. SECTION 9. The sheriffs and constables of Dunn county shall be officers of said court and may serve its processes and carry into effect its lawful orders and judgments and shall be entitled to the same fees as are allowed constables in justice courts, and shall be subject to the same liabilities and penalties.

Stenographic reporter; transcripts of testimony. SECTION 10. The municipal judge may, in his discretion, on the written request of either party to a civil action, or on like request by the district attorney in a criminal case or examination, call in a stenographic reporter, skilled in the art of shorthand, to take the testimony in such action or proceeding and may file the said reporter's notes in lieu of the testimony required by law to be taken by justices of the peace in like proceedings. In case of appeal in any civil action or proceeding, when so requested by the appellant, said reporter shall transcribe said testimony in longhand and the fees for such transcribing, not to exceed five cents per folio, shall be taxed as part of the judge's fees in the case. Said reporter shall receive such compensation for taking testimony as shall be allowed by the said municipal judge, not to exceed four dollars for each day, and two dollars for each half day actually engaged in taking testimony to and until the first regular meeting of the county board of supervisors of Dunn county. Thereafter the reporter shall have and receive such compensation as shall then be fixed by the said county board, and it shall be the duty of the said board to fix the compensation of the said stenographic reporter at said time. In said civil actions and proceedings, the compensation shall be fixed as a part of the costs in lieu of the fees now allowed to justices of the peace for taking testimony, and in criminal proceedings the same shall be paid out of the county treasury upon a certificate of the municipal judge. Section 2439 of the statutes of 1898 shall apply to said reporter of such court.

Public dockets, civil and criminal; county to provide blanks. SECTION 11. The judge of the said municipal court shall keep one docket for criminal trials, proceedings and examinations, and a separate docket for all civil actions and proceedings, and all docket entries and all processes shall be made, kept and filed in the same manner as far as practicable, as is now required of justices of the peace. All necessary blanks, dockets and stationery for the proper conduct of the said court shall be furnished by the county of Dunn. All documents and records of the said municipal court shall be public records and open to the inspection of all persons at all reasonable hours.

Attorneys' fees. SECTION 12. In all actions in the said municipal court, attorney's fees shall be allowed to the prevailing party as is provided in subdivision 4 of section 3775 of the statutes of 1898.

Jury trial. SECTION 13. Trial by jury may be had in said municipal court in the same manner as is now provided for courts of justices of the peace.
