Meeting of electors. SECTION 2. The qualified electors shall meet at Couderay school house situated on lot three (3), block eight (8) in the village of Couderay on the day appointed by law for the holding of annual town meetings and the election of town officers in this state.

Town election; vote for judicial officers. SECTION 3. The qualified electors of said town of Couderay shall, at such town meeting held as provided in section 2 of this act, in the manner provided by law, elect town officers for the said town of Couderay, and for the purpose of such election the qualified electors of said town of Couderay, shall, between the hours of nine and eleven o'clock in the forenoon, of said day, choose three of their number to act as inspectors of said election, and such inspectors shall, before entering upon their respective duties, severally take and subscribe their usual oath of office and file the same with their reports, and such inspectors shall respectively canvass and return the votes cast at such election, in all respects, as provided by law for inspectors at annual town meetings. A town clerk and also all necessary clerks of election shall be appointed by said inspectors, or a majority thereof, to assist said inspectors in conducting said town meeting, and in canvassing and returning the votes cast at such election; and the qualified electors so assembled at the place aforesaid may vote for judicial officers to be chosen on said date, and the votes cast for such judicial officers, whether for justice of the supreme court, judge of the circuit court or county judge, or all of them, shall be counted, canvassed and returned in the same manner and shall have the same effect as if the said town were fully and completely organized.

Vesting of town functions. SECTION 4. When said town meeting shall have been held as herein provided, and the town in at least five public places in the said town of Couderay, shall be deemed to be and shall be duly organized, and shall be subject to all the liabilities of other towns in the state of Wisconsin; and after said first town meeting all annual town meetings shall be held on the day provided by law for the holding of town meetings in other towns in the state of Wisconsin.

Notice of first town meeting. SECTION 5. A notice of said first meeting shall be given by the posting of a copy of this act in at least five public places in the said new town of Couderay at least ten days before the time of holding said first town meeting by any duly qualified elector of said new town, who shall make a proper affidavit of such posting and file the same on the day of the said first town meeting with the inspectors chosen at said first town meeting to conduct the same.

Apportionment of assets and liabilities. SECTION 6. The credits and indebtedness, as between the town of Couderay hereby created and the town of Radisson shall be apportioned according to the provisions of section 672, of the statutes of 1898.

Procedure of settlement between old town and new. SECTION 7. The supervisors of the town of Radisson and the supervisors of the said town of Couderay shall on the eighteenth day of June A. D. 1907, meet at the office of the town clerk of the town of Radisson, for the purpose of making settlements between said two towns, according to the provisions of this act, and at said meeting or at any subsequent or adjourned meeting held by said town boards of supervisors any three of the supervisors shall have full power and authority to send for and have brought before them at such meeting any persons, books, papers and records necessarily involved or needed in the settlement between said two towns. The town clerk of the town of Radisson shall act as clerk of the meeting, and the clerk of the new town of Couderay shall be present and assist as such clerk, and sufficient duplicates or copies of all proceedings had shall be made, in order that each may have at least one for the use and information of the town clerk and town board of supervisors thereof. Each town shall be chargeable with the expenses and for the services of its own officers only, and the bills therefor shall be audited and paid by the respective towns of Radisson and Couderay as other bills are by law authorized to be audited and paid.

SECTION 8. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 22, 1907.
