CHAPTER 428.

AN ACT to amend section 385 of the statutes and section 1 of chapter 14 of the laws of 1905, special session, and section 2 of chapter 320 of the laws of 1905, and to create section 391n, of the statutes, relating to the university, and making an appropriation therefor.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 385 of the statutes is amended to read:
 * * * * *

Transfers from general fund to university fund income.
 SECTION 2. Section 1 of chapter 14 of the laws of 1905 special session is amended to read: Section 1. The secretary of state, if in his judgment the conditions of the general fund will warrant it, with the approval of the governor, is authorized to transfer, after the beginning of each fiscal year until * * * 1909, and before the collection of the tax provided for the support of the university for such fiscal year, * * * from the general fund to the university fund income, such sum or sums * * * from the general fund to the current expenses of the university, provided that such sum or sums shall not exceed two hundred and fifty thousand dollars for any fiscal year, * * * but immediately upon the collection of such tax for any fiscal year for the support of the university, the secretary of state shall transfer the amount so loaned * * * from the university fund income to the general fund by proper transfer.

Five year appropriation; $200,000 annually. SECTION 3. Section 2 of chapter 320 of the laws of 1905 is amended to read: Section 2. There is annually appropriated for the period of five * * * years, the sum of two hundred thousand dollars, to the university fund income from the general fund of the state out of any moneys not otherwise appropriated to be used for the construction and equipment, in the order of the greatest need therefor, of such additional buildings and works, and the enlargement and repairs of buildings and works, as in the judgment of the regents shall be absolutely required, and as shall be approved by the governor, and can be completed within the appropriation herein made; and also for fire protection; for furniture and equipment of existing buildings; and for apparatus and additions to the library; provided that no plan or plans for any building shall be finally adopted, and no contract or contracts shall be entered into by the regents for the construction of any building until such plans and contracts, with complete estimates of the total cost thereof, shall have been submitted to and in writing approved by the governor of the state, who shall withhold such approval until he shall satisfy himself by a personal examination or by such other means as he may in his discretion adopt, that such building is required for the purposes proposed, and it can and will be erected and fully completed according to such plans or contracts for the sum proposed for the same by the regents out of the appropriation herein made.

SECTION 4. There is added to the statutes a new section to read:

* * * * *

Conflicting laws repealed. SECTION 5. All acts and parts of acts in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

SECTION 6. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved June 27, 1907.

records or other official material as may be transferred to its care, under the provisions of this act, and to keep the same accessible to all persons interested, under such proper and reasonable regulations as may be found advisable.

(Sec. 2, Ch. 88, 1907.)

Medical college in university. SECTION 385. The object of the University of Wisconsin shall be to provide the means of acquiring a thorough knowledge of the various branches of learning connected with literary, scientific, industrial and professional pursuits, and to this end it shall consist of the following colleges or departments, to-wit:

1. The college of letters and science.
2. The college of mechanics and engineering.
3. The college of agriculture.
4. The college of law.
5. The college of medicine.
6. Such other colleges, schools or departments as now are or may from time to time be added thereto or connected therewith.

(Ch. 428, 1907.)

Free tuition in law school, state university. SECTION 388. No student who shall have been a resident of the state for one year next preceding his admission at the beginning of any academic year, shall be required to pay any fees for tuition in the university, except * * * for extra studies; the regents may prescribe rates of tuition for any pupil * * * who shall not have been a resident as aforesaid and for teaching extra studies. Attendance at the university shall not of itself be sufficient to effect a residence.

(Ch. 105, 1907.)

University women's building and men's dormitories, appropriation; governor's approval prerequisite. SECTION 391n. There is annually appropriated for the period of four years the sum of one hundred thousand dollars to the university fund income from the general fund of the state out of any moneys not otherwise appropriated to be used for the construction and equipment of a women's building, which shall include a women's gymnasium, and for men's dormitories, provided that the women's building is to be first constructed, and further provided that no plan or plans for any building shall be finally adopted, and no contract or contracts shall be entered into by the regents for the construction of any building until such plans and contracts, with complete estimates of the total cost thereof, shall have been submitted to and in writing approved by the governor of the state, who shall withhold such approval until he shall satisfy himself by a personal examination or by such other means as he may in his discretion adopt, that such building is required for the purposes proposed, and it can and will be erected and fully completed according to such plans or contracts for the sum proposed for the same by the regents out of the appropriation herein made.

Geological survey: road building and data; lead and zinc; water power; appropriation. SECTION 392I. 1. The Geological and Natural History Survey is directed to investigate and to carry on such experimental work in road building, different methods of construction, kinds of material, and systems of drainage as will enable it to determine upon the various methods of road construction best adapted to the various sections and soils of the state, the cost of the same and recommend standards for the construction of highways in the various sections of the state. It may be consulted by county, city, village or township officers having charge over highways and bridges, and shall when requested advise and give without charge information to such officers relative to the construction, repairing, alteration and maintenance of said highways and bridges.

2. Local road authorities are required to furnish the Geological and Natural History Survey data as to the mileage, cost, maintenance, condition and character of roads under their supervision, upon the written request of and on blank forms supplied by said Geological and Natural History Survey.

3. Said Geological and Natural History Survey is further directed to extend the survey of the lead and zinc region beginning with districts which are at present of greatest economic importance.

4. Said Geological and Natural History Survey is further directed to continue the survey of the water powers of the state. This last survey may be made in conjunction with the United States Geological Survey.

5. Upon completion of the work named, full reports shall be made to the governor for the use of the legislature. The sum of ten thousand dollars annually for two years is hereby appropriated to defray the expense of executing these duties or other duties assigned to the said survey by the legislature.
