CHAPTER 266.

AN ACT to amend section 710 of the statutes, relating to bonds of county treasurers.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 710 of the statutes is amended to read: Section 710. 1. The bond of the county treasurer shall be in a sum to be fixed at not less than twice the amount of all taxes directed by the county board to be levied and received by the treasurer during the ensuing year and have three or more sureties, and be conditioned in substance as follows: Whereas, the above bounden.....was elected to the office of county treasurer of the county of....., on.....day of now, therefore, the condition of the above obligation is such, that if the said.....and his deputy, and all persons employed in his office shall faithfully execute the duties of said office, and if the said.....shall pay according to law all money that shall come to his hands as treasurer, including all drainage funds, and shall render a just and true account thereof whenever required by the county board or by any provision of law, and shall deliver to his successor in office or to any other person authorized by law to receive the same, all moneys, books, papers and other things appertaining or belonging to said office, then the above obligation shall be void; otherwise to be and remain in full force. * * *

2. In every county the taxable property of which shall exceed in valuation the sum of thirty million dollars the bond of the county treasurer shall be in a sum to be fixed by the county board of supervisors, in its discretion, at its annual meeting in November prior to the commencement of the term of office of such treasurer, which sum shall not be less than the amount nor exceed twice the amount of all taxes directed by the county board to be levied and received by the treasurer during the ensuing year with like sureties and conditions as hereinbefore required. * * *

3. Where the county board of any county shall have designated as the depository of the county fund any other person than the county treasurer and have fixed the bond of such depository as required and authorized by these statutes, then and in such case the county board by resolution may so modify the amount of the bond to be exacted from the county treasurer as it may think best, except that such modification shall never permit the county treasurer's bond to be less than * * * twenty per cent of the amount of all taxes directed by the county board to be levied and received by the treasurer during the ensuing year, in counties having a population of one hundred fifty thousand inhabitants or less nor shall such bond be less than ten per cent of the said amount of all said taxes in counties having one hundred fifty thousand or more inhabitants, nor shall the amount of said bond in any case be more than the amount of such taxes.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
