CHAPTER 284.

AN ACT to create section 1347n of the statutes, relating to the use of the earth road-drag.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is added to the statutes a new section to read: Section 1347n. 1. The town board of any town is authorized to have earth roads dragged with the split log-drag, or other drag of similar nature at all seasons of the year whenever they may deem it beneficial to have such work done; and may contract, a preference to be given adjoining land owners or tenants, to have a given piece of road dragged at a rate not to exceed seventy-five cents per mile for each time dragged; provided that the width required by the highway commissioners to be dragged shall not be less than twenty feet, if the width of the roadway will permit; provided, also, that the dragging is done as nearly as practicable in accordance with the instructions of the town board.

2. It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to place loose earth, weeds, sods, or other matter on the portion of a road which has been dragged and so maintained in good condition, or to place any material in such a manner as to interfere with the free flow of water from the dragged portion of the road to the side gutters or ditches; provided that this restriction shall not apply to deposits of earth or other material that may be made by the authority of the proper road officials, if necessary, for filling or raising the elevation of a given section of road or other necessary construction work.
