

army, navy, and marines of the revolution; the Act of 1901, retiring Charles A. Boutelle, a volunteer officer of the Union navy with the rank and retired pay of captain of the navy; the Acts of 1904, 1906, and 1907, granting increased rank and retired pay to the officers of the regular army and navy, based solely on the ground that they had "served with credit during the civil war;" and the Act of 1905, providing for the retirement of two officers of volunteers, namely, Generals Joseph R. Hawley and P. J. Osterhaus, with rank and retired pay of brigadier-generals.

Therefore it is further resolved, That in our opinion the surviving officers of volunteers of the army, navy, and marines and enlisted men who served with credit in the great war for the preservation of the Union are entitled to receive from the national government honors and emoluments equal to those which had heretofore been bestowed upon those who served in time of war in defense of the country.
