CHAPTER 208.

AN ACT to create section 1948f of the statutes, relating to the filing of the forms of policies of life and disability insurance.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is added to the statutes a new section to read: Section 1948f. 1. On and after the first day of January, 1912, no policy of life or disability insurance as defined in subsections 3 and 4 of section 1897, shall be issued or delivered in this state until the same has been approved by the commissioner of insurance, or until there has been filed with him at least thirty days:

- a. A copy of the form of such policy;
- b. A copy of any table of rates or statement of benefits furnished to agents or to insurants or to the public in this state;
- c. In case of life insurance, a separate statement on the basis of one thousand dollars of insurance for each age at which policies are to be issued, stating in dollars and cents, for each year during the possible history of the policy;
 1. the premium;
 2. the expected mortality or cost of insurance;
 3. the reserve, and
 4. the value at the end of each policy year of any and all benefits promised upon surrender, lapse, or any change in the policy, except that such value need not be extended beyond the first twenty years.

d. In lieu of including in such statement the expected mortality or cost of insurance and the reserve mentioned in paragraph c hereof, with the approval of the commissioner, a reference may be made to any book, pamphlet, or document on file with and approved by the commissioner containing such figures. If any such statement for any age shall not, as to such expected mortality or cost of insurance and reserve, refer to figures so on file with the commissioner, but shall give figures which do not correspond therewith, the company filing the same shall pay for verifying the same a fee of ten dollars for each age for which such statement shall fail to correspond, which shall be paid into the state treasury.

2. No such policy shall be issued or delivered in this state after the making of an order by the commissioner giving reasons for the disapproval thereof, or of the copy or statement required to be filed therewith, and notice thereof shall have been given to the company.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
