CHAPTER 212.

AN ACT to amend section 2846 of the statutes, relating to the preparation of court calendars.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2846 of the statutes is amended to read: Section 2846. 1. The clerk shall prepare a calendar for each term of the circuit court of all actions in which such notes of issue have been so filed, containing the title of each such action, the names of the attorneys, and the date of the issue, and arranged according to the dates of issue in three classes:

1. Issues of fact to be tried by a jury.
2. Issues of fact to be tried by the court.
3. Issues of law.

In which order the calendar shall be disposed of unless for convenience of parties, the dispatch of business, or the prevention of injustice, the court shall otherwise direct. In all actions pending on appeal, the date of filing the return on appeal shall be deemed the date of issue.

2. In circuit courts having one thousand or more actions on the term calendar, the clerk may, with the approval of the court, for the purpose of expediting the printing of such calendar, arrange the actions according to the date of filing the complaint, petition, or other pleading necessary to commence the action, and the serial record number of every action shall be its calendar number.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved May 26, 1911.

CHAPTER 213.

AN ACT to amend sections 616, 620, 648, 649—19, and 649—25 of the statutes, relating to the organization and discipline of the Wisconsin National Guard, and making an appropriation therefor.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Sections 616, 620, 648, 649—19, and 649—25 of the statutes are amended to read: Section 616. The adjutant general, subject to the approval of the governor, may purchase a traveling library of military text books for each regiment of infantry * * *.

Section 620. The quartermaster general shall, subject to the approval of the governor, issue to the commanding officer of each regularly organized company, troop, battery, band, and members of the non-commissioned staff such arms, accoutrements, uniforms, quartermaster's and ordnance stores, supplies for rifle practice and such other supplies, drill regulations, text books, blanks, and papers as may be necessary, taking receipts and causing proper returns to be made for the same. The quartermaster general, subject to the approval of the governor, may contract for the purchase and transportation of the supplies provided for in this section * * *.

Section 648. There shall be paid annually to each company commander and to each regimental and separate battalion adjutant, from the state treasury, the sum of fifty dollars. Each regimental commander shall receive annually for the incidental expenses of the regimental headquarters and staff not less than one hundred dollars and each battalion commander fifty dollars, and each such regimental commander shall annually report to the adjutant general the disposition made of such fund.

Section 649—19. Each company and band shall provide at its own expense a suitable room or building for an armory, and proper racks, frames, and other needed provisions for safe keeping of the quartermaster's and ordnance stores and supplies issued by the state, and shall keep therein the same when not in lawful use, except when an armory has been provided for the entire regiment to which the company or band may be attached. When such company or band shall be found by means of the annual inspection, provided for in this chapter, to be properly organized; to have at least the minimum number of members; to be well uniformed; to be well equipped with the necessary arms, accoutrements, and to have its quartermaster's ordnance stores in good condition; to have assembled for inspection and drill as provided by law, and if the commanding officer of such company or the officer or non-commissioned officer in charge of such band shall have made all the muster rolls and returns required by law or orders, all of which shall be evidenced by the certificate of the adjutant general; and when such certified inspection report shall be approved by the governor, each such company shall, except as provided in chapter 365 of the laws of 1895, annually be paid, upon the receipt of its commanding officer, the following appropriations in addition to those otherwise provided for in this chapter. Each company of infantry stationed in a city containing less than fifty thousand inhabitants, according to the last state or national census, not less than five hundred dollars. Each company of infantry stationed in a city containing more than fifty thousand inhabitants, according to such census, not less than seven hundred dollars. The troop of cavalry and battery of light artillery each not less than eight hundred dollars, and the bands each not less than the sum of * * * two hundred dollars. The above appropriations shall be full compensation for armory rent and for all other expenses not otherwise provided for in this chapter.

Section 649—25. The state camp grounds near Camp Douglas, Juneau county, shall be known as the Wisconsin state military reservation, and there may be expended, subject to the approval of the governor, and in addition to any special appropriations, for the maintenance, care, enlargement, and improvements thereon, such sums as may be needed * * * annually.

The officer in charge of the state military reservation shall have on such reservation the police powers possessed by officials at state hospitals, as provided in section 609 of the statutes * * *.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved May 26, 1911.

CHAPTER 214.

AN ACT to amend subsection 2 of section 1770b of the statutes, relating to foreign corporations.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Subsection 2 of section 1770b of the statutes is amended to read: (Section 1770b.) 2. No corporation, incorporated or organized otherwise than under the laws of this state, except railroad corporations, corporations or associations created solely for religious or charitable purposes, insurance companies and fraternal or beneficiary corporations, societies, orders, and associations furnishing life or casualty insurance or indemnity upon the mutual or assessment plan, shall transact business or acquire, hold, or dispose of property in this state until such corporation shall have caused to be filed in the office of the secretary of state a copy of its charter, articles of association or incorporation and all amendments thereto duly certified by the secretary of state of the state wherein the corporation was organized. In case the laws of the state wherein the corporation was organized do not require that the charter, articles of association or incorporation be filed in the office of the secre-
