CHAPTER 7.

AN ACT to provide for the distribution of Sanborn and Sanborn's Supplement to the statutes of 1898 and dictionaries, and making an appropriation therefor.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Upon the filing by the sergeants-at-arms of the senate and assembly with the secretary of state, of their certificates showing delivery to them of copies of Sanborn and Sanborn's Supplement to the statutes of 1898, pursuant to Joint Resolutions Nos. 4 and 5, S., the secretary of state shall draw his warrant upon the state treasury in favor of Callaghan and Company of Chicago, Illinois, for the cost of such number of copies as are certified to have been delivered, at the price of five dollars per copy.

SECTION 2. The superintendent of public property shall purchase for the use of the senate and assembly six copies of Webster's New International Dictionary.

SECTION 3. There is appropriated out of any money in the state treasury, not otherwise appropriated, a sum sufficient to carry out the purposes of this act.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 2, 1911.
