CHAPTER 10.

AN ACT to detach certain territory from the town of Saxon, in Iron county, to create the town of Kimball, and to provide for town meetings therein, and for a final settlement between said towns.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. All that tract of country heretofore constituting a part of the town of Saxon, lying and being in the county of Iron and state of Wisconsin, and known and described as follows, to wit: All of fractional sections thirteen, fourteen, fifteen, twenty-two, twenty-four, twenty-five, and all of sections twenty-three, twenty-six, twenty-seven, thirty-four, thirty-five, and thirty-six, all lying and being in township forty-seven, range one east, the south half of sections eight and nine and all of sections one, two, three, ten, eleven, twelve, thirteen, fourteen, fifteen, sixteen, seventeen, twenty, twenty-one, twenty-two, twenty-three, twenty-four, twenty-five, twenty-six, twenty-seven, twenty-eight, twenty-nine, thirty, thirty-one, thirty-two, thirty-three, thirty-four, thirty-five, and thirty-six, all lying and being in township forty-six, range one east, is hereby detached from the said town of Saxon and duly created and constituted a separate town to be called the town of Kimball; and said town is hereby created and organized with all the rights, powers and privileges conferred upon and granted to other towns in the state of Wisconsin, and shall be subject to all general laws enacted for town government therein.

SECTION 2. The first town meeting in said town hereby organized shall be held at Kimball, in the said town of Saxon, and county aforesaid in the store building of Kimball and Clark, situate in said Kimball, the same being located on the southwest quarter of the northeast quarter of section twelve, township forty-six, range one east, on the day appointed by law for the holding of annual town meetings in the year 1913; and shall, in the manner provided by law, elect town officers for said town and exercise all other powers and make such provisions for the town government as are now authorized by statute to be exercised and made at the annual town meetings of any town.

SECTION 3. For the purpose of the election hereinbefore provided the qualified electors of the said town of Kimball, assembled at the place aforesaid, shall, between the hours of nine and eleven o'clock, in the forenoon of said day, choose three of their number to act as inspectors of said election, and such inspectors shall, before entering upon their respective duties, severally take the usual oath of office and file the same with their returns; and such inspectors shall respectively canvass and return the votes cast at such election in all respects as provided by law for inspectors at annual town meetings. A town clerk and all necessary clerks of election shall be appointed by said inspectors, or a majority thereof, to assist said inspectors in conducting said town meetings and in canvassing and returning the votes cast at such election.

SECTION 4. When said town meeting shall have been held as herein provided, and the town officers required by law duly elected, the said town of Kimball shall be deemed to be, and shall be, duly organized, and shall possess all the rights, powers, privileges and authority, and shall be subjected to the usual liabilities, of other towns in the state of Wisconsin. After the said first town meeting all annual meetings shall be held on the day provided by law for the holding of town meetings in other towns in the state of Wisconsin.

SECTION 5. Notice of said town meetings shall be given by posting of a copy of this act in at least six public places in said town of Kimball at least ten days before the time of holding said first town meeting, by any duly qualified elector of said town, who shall make a proper affidavit of such posting and file the same on the day of said first town meeting with the inspectors chosen to conduct said first town meeting.

SECTION 6. The electors of said town of Kimball, assembled at the place above mentioned, shall have the power at said first meeting to vote to determine upon the adoption of the township system of schools or the school district system, and shall have power to make and levy a tax allowed by law for school purposes, irrespective of the recommendations therefor made by the school authorities of the present town of Saxon.

SECTION 7. The assets and liabilities of the said towns of Saxon and Kimball shall be apportioned to the said town of Kimball pro rata in such proportion as the valuation of all taxable property detached from the said town of Saxon bears to the whole of the assessed valuation of said towns of Saxon and Kimball, according to the assessment roll for the year 1912.

SECTION 8. The supervisors of the town of Saxon and the supervisors of the town of Kimball shall, on the third day of June, 1913, meet at the office of the town clerk of the town of Saxon for the purpose of making a settlement between the said two towns according to the provisions of this act; and at such meeting or at any subsequent or adjourned meeting held by said town board of supervisors, any three of the supervisors shall have full power and authority to send for any persons, books, papers and records necessarily involved in the settlement between said two towns. The town clerk of the town of Saxon shall act as clerk of such joint meeting, and the town clerk of the new town of Kimball shall be present and assist; and sufficient duplicates or copies of all proceedings had shall be made in order that each town may have at least one such copy for the use and information of the town clerk and town board of supervisors thereof. Each town shall be chargeable with the expense and for the services and per diem of its own officers only.

SECTION 9. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 18, 1913.
