CHAPTER 472.

AN ACT to amend section 3479 of the statutes, relating to punishment for disobeying orders to pay costs or other sums of money.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3479 of the statutes is amended to read: Section 3479. When any order of the court or a judge shall have been made requiring the payment of costs or any other sum of money and proof by affidavit shall be made of the personal demand of such sum of money and of a refusal to pay it the court or judge may issue a warrant to commit the person so disobeying to prison or a house of correction until such sum and costs and expenses of the proceedings shall be paid. Where an order of the court, or a judge, in an action for divorce, requires the payment of a sum or sums of money, and personal service of such order has been made upon the defendant, no proof of personal demand of such sum of money and a refusal to pay shall be required before the defendant is punished as provided in this section.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved June 14, 1913.
