CHAPTER 557.

AN ACT to create section 926—161 of the statutes, relating to officers in cities of the fourth class.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is added to the statutes a new section to read: Section 926—161. In any city of the fourth class, where the city attorney is elected by the council or appointed by the mayor subject to approval or confirmation by the council, such council or the mayor and council may, when in their judgment the best interests of the city so require, elect or appoint a city attorney who is not a resident elector of said city, and the election or appointment of any such person as city attorney, heretofore made in any such city, and all his acts within the scope of his official duties, where otherwise valid, are hereby declared to be valid.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved June 25, 1913.
