

of the state, either of any department or of any institution, to assist said committee in its investigation and upon the request of such committee, such state department or institution shall assign to this work such civil engineer or engineers as the committee may request; be it further

Resolved, That said committee report to the legislature the result of its investigation and examination, together with such testimony as may be taken by the committee, and make such recommendations as the members of the committee deem advisable and proper in the premises.

---

[Jt. Res. No. 42, S.]

JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 8.

Relating to the death of Captain Alexander A. Arnold.

WHEREAS, Captain Alexander A. Arnold, a former member of the legislature and a pioneer citizen of this state, died at Galesville, Wisconsin, Monday morning, March 1st, and

WHEREAS, Captain Arnold gave freely of his time and energy to public life and service; he enlisted in company C of the Thirtieth Wisconsin Volunteer Infantry, in August, 1862, of which company he was chosen captain and was so commissioned by Governor Lewis and served his state until the close of the Civil war; he was elected to the assembly in 1870 and again in 1880 when he was chosen speaker of that house, and he served his district in the state senate from 1878 to 1880, and

WHEREAS, Captain Arnold served the state of Wisconsin honorably and efficiently and was a prominent and leading factor in the upbuilding of his community and state, now therefore be it

Resolved, by the Senate, the Assembly concurring, That as evidence of respect and in recognition of the important public services of Captain Arnold this memorial be entered in the journals of both houses and that a suitably engrossed copy of the same, properly attested by the presiding officers, be forwarded to the members of Captain Arnold's family.