

of the United States government, and as a tribute of respect from his fellow members

Be it further resolved, That this resolution be duly entered in the journals of the two houses, and that a copy thereof, suitably engrossed and signed by the governor of the state and by the presiding officers of the two houses, and attested by the chief clerks thereof, be forwarded to Mr. Campbell.

---

[No. 116, A.]

JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 30.

Conveying expressions of appreciation to the members of the capitol commission.

WHEREAS, The terms of office of the members of the capitol commission expire on July first of the present year; and

WHEREAS, From the thought and labors of the members of this commission has sprung Wisconsin's magnificent capitol building, surpassed by no other capitol building in the United States; and

WHEREAS, These honorable and public spirited men have not only served Wisconsin faithfully and otherwise well, but have devoted their time and energies to the planning and construction of this wonderful building without compensation. Now, therefor, be it

Resolved by the Assembly, the Senate concurring, That this legislature, for and on behalf of the people of the state of Wisconsin, and for and on its own behalf, hereby conveys to the members of the capitol commission, collectively and individually, expressions of appreciation for a great work well done. Be it further

Resolved, That copies of these resolutions suitably engrossed and attested by the signatures of the presiding officers of the two houses be forwarded to the present members, former members, and to the families of deceased members of the capitol commission.

---

[No. 122, A.]

JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 31.

Referring to the next legislature a proposed amendment to the constitution.

WHEREAS, A majority of the members elected to each of the two houses of the legislature have agreed to the following proposed amendment to section 21 of article IV of the constitution: