

Resolved by the Senate, the Assembly concurring, That this memorial be spread upon the journals of both houses and that a copy thereof, suitably engrossed and duly attested by the signatures of the presiding officers and chief clerks, be transmitted to the bereaved family. And be it further

Resolved, That a committee to consist of three members of the senate and three members of the assembly be appointed by the respective presiding officers to represent this legislature and the state of Wisconsin at the funeral of Mr. Martin.

---

[No. 31, A.]

JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 9.

Pledging the support of the State of Wisconsin to the President.

Resolved by the Assembly, the Senate concurring, That the speaker of the Assembly and the president of the Senate be and they are hereby instructed to at once wire the President of the United States, the President of the Senate and Speaker of the House of Representatives of the United States that the people of Wisconsin have faith that the government will do all things possible and consistent with the dignity of our nation to prevent war, and that the people of Wisconsin have implicit confidence in our government and will loyally support the government in whatever action it may ultimately be necessary to take in the present international crisis.

---

[No. 35, A.]

JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 10.

Relating to the services and death of Assemblyman Isaac Kvam.

The announcement of the sudden death of Isaac Kvam, one of our colleagues, comes as a distinct shock and casts a gloom over our proceedings. Mr. Kvam was elected to the legislature last November. He has in the short month we have been in session won a place in our hearts by his unfailing courtesy, his fairness, his generous good will and his devotion to his work in the legislature. The legislature regrets that so useful and so able a member is removed from its midst, but it bows humbly before the Creator and says: Thy will be done.

Mr. Kvam was born in Namdalen, Norway, January 28, 1864, and came to this country when about 19 years of age. He attended Luther college at Decorah, Iowa, and graduated from Luther seminary, Robbinsdale, Minn., in 1892. After a two years' pastorate under the Norwegian synod at Seattle, Washington, he removed to Rice Lake, Wisconsin, where he was in