CHAPTER 218.

AN ACT to create section 937g of the statutes, granting authority to cities to grant or trade sites on its parks to incorporated yacht clubs organized without capital stock and for specified purposes.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is added to the statutes to read: Section 937g. 1. Any city, however incorporated, which has heretofore acquired, or which may hereafter acquire, title to any submerged land, constituting the bed of any lake, with or without authority to fill in the same, for public park and boulevard purposes, is hereby given the right and authority to grant and convey to any incorporated yacht club of this state, organized without capital stock, and whose principal purposes and objects are development and encouragement of boating, sailing, yacht building, naval architecture and science, and nautical knowledge, customs and beliefs, or kindred purposes, for its exclusive occupancy, use and enjoyment, such part of such land as the common council of such city shall by resolution designate, or to grant such part of such land to any such yacht club corporation in exchange for any lands such yacht club corporation may own or occupy, as may be agreed upon, and as the common council of such city shall by resolution provide.

2. The common council of such city, by a majority vote of its members, at any regular meeting, may adopt a resolution containing a description of the piece or parcel of such land, the corporate name of the yacht club to whom the same is granted, and directing the proper city officers to execute and deliver such grant and conveyance.

3. If jurisdiction or control over such lands acquired by any such city for its parks and boulevards has been given to a board of park commissioners, then such board shall approve the said grant and conveyance before the same shall be delivered or become effective.

4. Any such grant or conveyance, when adopted, approved of and executed as herein provided, shall vest in the grantee therein named the title to the lands described to its proper benefit and behoof, exclusively, so long as said grantee shall use and occupy the same for the purposes and objects expressed in its charter; all buildings or structures which such grantee may place or erect thereon shall be of such design and construction as the proper city authorities or its park board may prescribe or approve.

5. Upon dissolution of such yacht club corporation, or whenever such lands shall be used or occupied for other purposes than above provided, the circuit court of the county wherein such lands are situated shall adjudge the title thereto forfeited, and the title thereto shall revert in said city, as of its former estate and for the exclusive use for park and boulevard purposes.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved May 23, 1919.

CHAPTER 219.

AN ACT to amend subsection 1 of section 959p of the statutes, relating to the sprinkling of streets in cities of the second, third and fourth class.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Subsection 1 of section 959p of the statutes is amended to read: (Section 959p) 1. * * * Whenever the common council of any city of the second, third or fourth class shall so decide, it may * * * cause any street or portion of a street * * * to be sprinkled during such period as it may order. The board of public works, or the person or body performing the duties of such board, shall keep an accurate account of the cost of such sprinkling and shall, on or before the first Monday of November, present to the common council a complete and accurate statement of the cost of all sprinkling done during the preceding summer, and shall state the cost of each block separately.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved May 23, 1919.
