

[Jt. Res. No. 8, S.]

JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 1, S.

Ratifying an amendment to the constitution of the United States relating to intoxicating liquors.

WHEREAS, Both houses of the sixty-fifth congress of the United States of America, at its second session, by a constitutional majority of two-thirds thereof, made the following proposition to amend the constitution of the United States of America in the following words, to wit:

“Joint resolution proposing an amendment to the constitution of the United States.

“Resolved by the senate and house of representatives of the United States of America in congress assembled (two-thirds of each house concurring therein), That the following amendment to the constitution be, and hereby is, proposed to the states, to become valid as a part of the constitution when ratified by the legislature of the several states as provided by the constitution:

“Article ———.

“Section 1. After one year from the ratification of this article the manufacture, sale, or transportation of intoxicating liquors within, the importation thereof into, or the exportation thereof from the United States and all territory subject to the jurisdiction thereof for beverage purposes is hereby prohibited.

“Section 2. The congress and the several states shall have concurrent power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

“Section 3. This article shall be inoperative unless it shall have been ratified as an amendment to the constitution by the legislature of the several states, as provided in the constitution, within seven years from the date of the submission hereof to the states by the congress.” Therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate, the Assembly concurring, That the said proposed amendment to the constitution of the United States of America be, and the same hereby is, ratified by the legislature of the state of Wisconsin, and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this joint resolution, certified by the secretary of state, be forwarded by the governor to the secretary of state at Washington, and to the presiding officer of each house of the congress of the United States.
