JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 52.

To provide for a joint interim committee to codify and revise statutory provisions that confer quasi-judicial powers upon state boards, commissions and other state bodies and to codify and revise the rules and regulations prescribed by such bodies.

Resolved by the Assembly, the Senate concurring, That there is hereby appointed a joint interim committee to consist of two senators and three assemblymen to be appointed according to the rules of the respective houses to codify and revise the statutes which confer administrative and quasi-judicial powers upon state boards, commissions or other bodies or upon members of such boards, commissions or bodies and outline procedure for and in the exercise of such power, and to codify and revise the rules and regulations formulated and promulgated by such boards, commissions or bodies, designed to facilitate and govern procedure in the exercise of such quasi-judicial powers, all with a view to eliminating from such statutes and such rules and regulations any and all requirements or steps which tend to complicate or make difficult of comprehension all or any part of such procedure, or which tends to destroy the simplicity that it was intended should characterize such procedure; and with the further view of publishing such rules so codified in some systematic and comprehensive form; and be it further

Resolved, That said committee shall have power to employ necessary stenographers, clerks and assistants and fix their compensation; that each of the members of the committee shall have power to administer oaths to persons appearing before them; that each of the members of the committee shall be reimbursed by the state for his actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of his official duties hereunder; that the respective state boards, commissions, other bodies, departments and institutions shall fully cooperate with the committee in the performance of the duties enjoined by this resolution; that the committee shall make full report to the 1921 legislature covering its investigations and its findings and conclusions thereon and shall transmit with such report such bill or bills for such legislation as the committee may deem necessary.
