

arrest, trial and punishment of offenders shall govern so far as applicable in all such actions and proceedings before said police justices or justices of the peace. Whenever any police justice or justice of the peace before whom any such action or proceeding is pending shall be legally disqualified from any cause to try the same, said action or proceeding shall be sent for trial to any justice of the peace of said village or town or to the said municipal court. The said municipal court has also jurisdiction of all cases brought for breach of any recognizance given in said court; but no judgment in any such action shall constitute a lien upon real estate until a transcript thereof is duly docketed in the office of the clerk of the circuit court of said county, in like manner as judgments of circuit courts in civil cases are required to be docketed; and when so docketed, shall have the same lien upon real estate in said county as judgments of the circuit court so docketed have. The judgments of the municipal court in bastardy and criminal cases tried before it may be examined and reviewed by the supreme court in the same manner as judgments of the circuit court. To carry out its jurisdiction the said municipal court shall have all the powers of circuit courts, and the municipal judge shall have the same powers in all matters pertaining to the jurisdiction of said municipal court, as circuit judges.
