CHAPTER 135.

AN ACT to amend subsection (5) of section 17.21 of the statutes, relating to vacancies in the office of supervisor in special counties.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Subsection (5) of section 17.21 of the statutes is amended to read: (17.21) (5) In the office of county supervisor of counties having a population of at least two hundred fifty thousand, according to the last state or United States census, by appointment by the chairman of the county board from among the electors of the assembly district for which such vacancy occurs. * * * A person so appointed and approved shall hold office until his successor is elected and qualified. His successor shall be elected for the residue of the unexpired term on the first Tuesday of April next after the vacancy happens, in case it happens thirty days or more before such day, but if such vacancy happens within thirty days before such first Tuesday, of April, then such successor shall be elected on the first Tuesday of April of the next ensuing year; provided, however, that such successor shall be elected at an April election at which officers shall be voted for throughout the entire assembly district; but no election to fill a vacancy in such office shall be held at the time of holding the regular election for such office. The provisions hereof shall not apply to vacancies heretofore filled.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved May 13, 1925.
